FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Orlando Gay Chorus Presents “Sleigh Queen!”

Orlando, FL – Sleigh, Queen! Their hair is fabulous, their makeup on point, and their notes put the jingle in your bells. Orlando Gay Chorus is proud to present their holiday mainstage performance December 14 and 15, 2019 at the Rosen Event Center. Special guest appearance will be made by one who knows a thing or two about reindeer games.

Orlando Gay Chorus is proud to present “Sleigh Queen” at the Rosen Event Center, 11184 S. Apopka-Vineland Rd, Orlando, FL 32836. Performances will be held at 2:00PM and 7:30PM on December 14 and 4:30PM on December 15, 2019. This is a “family” and family friendly show celebrating the LGBTQ+ Community and all who make the Holidays the most wonderful time of the year. The script may be familiar with an extra flair you can only experience at an OGC performance. Join a cast of over one hundred singers and dancers as they regale in favorite songs and dance including “Run, Run, Rudolph,” Sia’s “Santa’s Coming for Us” and “Glow” by Eric Whitacre. Patrons are invited to bring an unwrapped toy for donation at one of Central Florida’s longest continuously running Toys for Tots events.

Tickets may be purchased online at www.orlandogaychorus.org and at the door; however, seating is limited. Ticket prices are $25 for adults and $10 for students and children online and $30 at the door.

“For this year’s holiday concert, we present a story reminiscent of classic Claymation movies we know and love. How does a misfit become the sleigh queen over all other reindeer?”
Statement of artistic vision by James Rode, Artistic Director.

Orlando Gay Chorus is one of the nation’s largest and longest running mixed voice LGBTQ+ choruses. This spring they celebrate 30 years of changing hearts and minds in the Central Florida community. They have been recognized by the City of Orlando as Ambassadors of Love and Hope and continue to endeavor to meet that recognition in every public appearance and performance.
